Current Awareness Tools

So little time, so much information.

Today, more than ever, attorneys need to stay current with the myriad changes impacting their professional lives. While traditional resources like print newsletters and advance sheets retain their usefulness, they can be expensive and are no longer sufficient. Ambitious, cost-conscious attorneys realize they must avail themselves of emerging news and information delivery technologies. To do so may be easier than you think. The Stark County Law Library can assist by providing references to blogs, online newsletters, government e-mail services, newsfeeds and other free resources. Once you have identified the sources that you wish to follow you may want to use a RSS reader (aggregator) that you can customize to monitor your selections.

This software checks blogs and newsfeeds regularly and displays the current headlines or first lines. Many aggregators are available without charge.

More information on aggregators can be found at: <http://www.abanet.org/lpm/magazine/articles/v29is8an4.shtml>.

This issue focuses on free current awareness tools dedicated to bankruptcy practice. For resources on a topic related to your practice area, email the library at info@starklawlibrary or call (330) 451-7380.
